Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.
Investigation - Mr. DeM.

January 25,1923. Proceeded to New Brunswick, N.J., for the purpose of interviewing Charlotte and Jim Mills, but found nobody at the house.

I interviewed Mrs. Kelly, who said she knew nothing, and would not tell anything as she had been once in Somerville and had told what she knew.

Mrs. Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Bennett, I secured a description of Mr. Hall's fob.

Mrs. Mr. Mahr, of #235 George St., New Brunswick, N.J., I learned that his son would often play with Danny Mills, and Danny would come to their house. Mr. Mahr has no positive recollection whether Danny was at his home on the night of Sept. 14,1922, but it is his belief that Danny was not there, for the reason that he and his family were to the seashore, and they returned home at about 7 p.m. They received a telephone call that his (Mr. Mahr's) sister who lived in Brooklyn, was sick. Mr. Mahr got his car and then took his mother down to the depot to get the 10 p.m. train, but he said, "It might be possible that Danny was here, and I don't remember it."
